Galilee news

Despite the inclement weather an appreciative crowd attended morning and afternoon services at the Galilee Baptist Church last Sunday. The assistant pastor Rev. Davis was in charge of the morning service and the afternoon service was sponsored under the auspices of the Senior Choir. The afternoon program was rendered by the Junior Choir of the Levi Baptist Church of Meherrin, Va. All who came out enjoyed both services.

Members and friends are asked to attend the "Deacon and Trustee Rally" given for the benefit of the building fund of the Galilee Baptist Church this Sunday at 3 p.m. A special sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Williams and a special singing group will accompany him.

Members and friends of the local NAACP are asked to take notice in the change of meeting place for the next place of meeting. The monthly meeting will be at Galilee Church instead of Peaceful Grove Baptist Church.

The Galilee Junior Choir has completed plans for its anniversary on the third Sunday in this month at 3 p.m. The Rev. James Cobble and his choir of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Redhouse, Va. will be the special guest. The public is invited to attend.

Local churches are reminded of the Cancer drive. Please cooperate.

Mrs. Theda Harris is receiving special treatment in the Lynchburg General Hospital. She has our prayers and best of wishes.

THELMA ROGERS, VERA MOORE, Elizabeth Marsh, Dot Wilkerson, Claudia Moore and Margaret Hillsman (from left) display a Log Cabin hand-sewn quilt made by the Oakville Home and Garden Club at their March meeting. Members will accept donations of $1 on the quilt. A drawing will be held Saturday, June 13 at 1 p.m. For further information, contact Claudia Moore at 352-5574, Elizabeth Marsh, 352-7594, or Thelma Rogers, at 352-5638.
